

“Very informative and easy to understand. The tour makes you very aware of a very real issue, and how you can help!”

— Junior Leader

“A “must-do” for every troop! The tour is very informative and really brought so much awareness to our girls in an a very uplifting way.”

— Brownie Leader

Interfaith Community Services
4th Annual Food Drive Event and Tour

Saturday, March 20, 2010

Escondido Service Center
550 West Washington Avenue, Escondido

Saturday, March 27, 2010

Coastal Service Center
2195 Oceanside Boulevard, Oceanside

Tours are Available from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Pre-Registration is Required

Join Interfaith Community Services and your fellow Girl Scouts for a fun-filled, educational tour of Interfaith’s programs that serve the homeless, poor, and underserved in our community. Interactive tours are 1½ hours and cost $2 per girl (includes the tour, snack, and patch). Registration is first come, first serve. Sorry, no refunds.

Before coming to the event, girls are encouraged to participate in a service project food drive within their troop, neighborhood, school, faith center, or community. Bring the collected food items with you for the event and see first-hand how your donations will help people in need.
