

NORTH COUNTY TIMES

June 13, 2009

ESCONDIDO | FAMILY RESOURCE FAIR

Laurie Orr, working the Interfaith Community Services Transitional Youth Academy booth Friday at the Family Resource Fair at Grape Day Park in Escondido, poses a "Jeopardy" question to Trinity Cloes, 17, left, Mitzy Gomez, 16, Jesse Lopez, 16, and Laura Padron, 18. The second annual fair was presented by the county Probation Department's Youth Day Center Reflections program. Supervising probation Officer Fernando Uribe said the fair is held to "connect families to the resources that are available." Close to 50 law enforcement, health, community services and career resource groups were represented at the fair.

BILL WECHTER | bwechter@nctimes.com